

Andhra Loyola Institute of Engineering and Technology

National Service Scheme

Not Me But You

Mr. A. Rajesh, M.A Social Work
Extension Officer

Andhra Loyola Institute of Engineering and Technology was established to impart technical education in the realm of higher education with integral formation which involves academic brilliance and social commitment. The Extension Committee/NSS unit is part of our academic education. Since its inception, it has been extending yeoman's service for the community, under the untiring and inspiring leadership of the management and faculty. The committee allows the students to actively contribute their services for the cause of community and the nation, thus helping them build their personality.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) was evolved and introduced by the Government of India in the year 1969. It aims at developing amongst students a keen sense of participation in nation building through welfare activities. The institution was also established with the sole aim of forming men and women for others. The NSS serves as a right platform, where the student- youth of the nation get opportunity to involve with real-life social activities, and thereby become responsible citizens with competence, conscience and compassion. Mr. Rajesh Arava, Extension Officer, has been launching welfare services in accordance with the vision and mission of the institution.

Objectives:

- To develop a sense of respect to the principles, values, rights and obligations and to promote National Unity, integrity, non-violence, secularism, democracy, equality before law.
- To identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in problem solving.
- To utilize knowledge in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems.
- To develop a sense of social and civic responsibility.
- To develop competence required for group living and sharing responsibilities.
- To acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitude.
- To develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters.
- To practice national integration and social harmony.
