

Best Practice: 1

Title of the Practice: Strengthening Communication skills for Better Placements

Objectives of the Practice: The College has students club entitled - Euphonious voices club. The main objective of this club is to provide a platform to the students to exhibit their communication and leadership skills. Thus, students of various diversities can greatly benefit and learn better through this Euphonious voices club.

The Context: Read India is a slogan given by ELTAI - platform for English language learning. The college has qualified trainers who are the members of ELTAI. These members inspire the students to read Newspaper, books etc.

The Practice: The members of the club take turns to read a newspaper daily to the student community. The daily newspaper along with an introductory note on the importance of the day and an inspirational quote is read aloud through a Public Announcement system. The student community is made to listen to these announcements carefully and later they are asked to participate in a weekly debates and group discussion.

Evidences of Success: More engagement of students in learning Satisfactory Results and placements are obtained.

Problems encountered: Cannot reach out at a time to all.
