

7.1.10 Conduct of Annual Awareness Programmes on Code of Conduct

Circulars and photographs with caption of the activities organized under the metric for teachers, students, administrators and other staff

Andhra Loyola Institute of Engineering and Technology focuses on developing a holistic personality of students to form as a responsible citizen. The discipline committee of ALIET takes care to maintain and sustain the code of conduct of the institution. In this regard, Annual awareness programmes are conducted on Code of Conduct to both the staff and students with the help of Science and Humanities department and Women's Cell. The Code of conduct is imparted to all the members through Orientation Programmes. Code of conduct is published in the Handbook given to all internal stakeholders and placed on College website for creating awareness. During the normal course of time, if any deviation is observed from the code of conduct, it is addressed by the committee and resolved. In special cases, the same is referred to the higher authorities.
